CHARACTER

Under Construction

BEREAN
BIBLE CHURCH
SUMMER CAMP
JULY 24-30, 2011

"No artist work is so high, so noble, so grand,
so enduring, so important for all time, as the making of character in a child."

C.S. Cushman

Character Under Construction

is our theme for Summer Camp 2011. For over 35 years, Berean Bible Church has conducted a week of summer camp where we seek to challenge young people spiritually, mentally and physically through activities such as practical Bible classes, chapel time, personal and cabin devotional times, Bible memory, and fun and exciting recreation times. Our staff of godly men and women will seek to counsel your young person in developing Christlike character qualities such as servanthood, love, purity, integrity, humility and thankfulness. Television, books, music, social media ....are all competing for the chance to mold your young person's character, but we will use the Bible as our blueprint to discover God's plan for our heart and mind, for the use of our hands, eyes, feet, and for the use of our time.

Come Spend an Exciting and Challenging Week With Us!

Special Speaker

Due to medical issues surrounding the arrival of his newest child, Rev. David Wetterlund felt it necessary to cancel his speaking engagement with us for camp. Our prayers are with his family for a safe delivery and healthy mom and baby.

We are very excited to announce that Pastor Brad Jury will be joining us as our special speaker July 24th-30th. Pastor Jury spent 10 years as a youth pastor pouring his life into, not only the youth of his church, but also, teaching young people in Christian high school. He now pastors Providence Baptist Church in Westerville, OH. Pastor Jury continues to have a great rapport with young people and a heart to get the message across to them that 'You can be as close to God as you want to be.' ....James 4:8. His morning classes and chapel messages will emphasize the importance of maintaining a close walk with Christ.
