

The Text For Everyone

John 3:16

By Pastor David Kuntz

Introduction: Tonight I'd like to talk to you about the most famous and beloved verse in the Bible. We see it flashed on posters at sporting events or plastered on bumper stickers. The verse is taught to children in Sunday school and Bible clubs. The verse I am referring to is none other than John 3:16. In just a few minutes I'd like to rediscover why this is a text for everyone.

I. Because It Has a Love for Everyone

“For God so loved the world”

II. Because It Has a Sacrifice for Everyone

“That He gave us His only begotten Son”

III. Because It Has an Invitation for Everyone

“That whosoever believeth in Him, should not perish.”

IV. Because It Has a Life Long Enough for Everyone

“But have everlasting life.”

Conclusion: Have you accepted that love, sacrifice, invitation and everlasting life wrapped up in the Gospel gift of Jesus Christ? If not, today is the day of salvation! In Romans 10:9 the apostle Paul said, “That if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.” Settle this issue of salvation today for your soul is too valuable to let it perish!

