

Job 26:1-14

By Pastor David Kuntz

Introduction: In the 21 chapters of dialogue we've seen chaos and the differing of opinions. Everyone in the book is trying to describe God in his own eyes. Although the time and culture has changed, the powerful spirit of confusion still lives. Confusion among unbelievers is understandable because Satan is the architect, but what about the confusion that rests upon believers today? This rampant powerful spirit is paralyzing believers today. Yet, the good news is that our God has not forgotten us in these difficult times. He is keenly aware of our circumstances, and He longs to help us! Our text identifies two key vehicles that Satan uses to confuse believers and also gives us the instructions of how to cut through the diabolic mess. If we can have clarity about these things, I believe the confusion will subside.

I. Identify The Confusion That Comes From People (vs. 1-4)

A. Test the counsel (vs. 1-3)

B. Test the spirits (vs. 4)

II. Identify That Confusion Comes Through the World

(vs. 5-14)

A. Stand upon the promise of God's presence (vs. 5-6)

B. Stand upon the promise of God's goodness (vs. 7-11)

C. Stand upon the promise of God's power (vs. 12-14)
