

The Joy in Remembering Blessings (Part II)

Job 29:7-25

By Pastor David Kuntz

Introduction: In chapter 29, as Job is sitting in an ash heap, his heart somehow soars with joy! How could a man endure that kind of abuse from friends and still have joy? The answer is because of Job's personal relationship with the Almighty. Job was a branch and as a branch he was attached to the vine! All the joy that he could muster in such a time as this was from abiding in the Lord. Thinking upon these exceeding riches of God's mercy was balm for his soul. Job's example shows us how we can have joy even when things go wrong. And the way Job does this is by remembering God's blessings on his life. Our selected text this evening records 4 more additional joys that come to us through serving the Lord.

I. The Joy of Respect from Others (vs. 7-11)

II. The Joy in Helping Others (vs. 12-17)

III. The Joy of a Confident Future (vs. 18-20)

IV. The Joy of Being an Encourager (vs. 21-25)

Conclusion:

