

The Spiritual Transformation - Part 2

Job 31:1-23

By Pastor David Kuntz

Introduction: In this chapter we saw that Job did what he did because his heart had been transformed. At his regeneration he received a new heart and new master and a change took place within that transformed every area of his life. Our study of these verses ought to motivate us to reevaluate our lives. Ask yourself tonight, “Is the Gospel transforming me from the inside out?” “Am I changing for the better?” A good way to gauge your progress is to look at your conduct. Tonight, we’re going to see how the Gospel affects the whole being of a man whose thinking is dominated by the fear of God and gripped by His greatness!

I. It Will Change a Christian’s Body (vs. 1-12)
